

MUSICAL STORY-TELLER

Eliza Escalante, M.M.

About Me

Hello, my name is Ms. Eliza and I am a musical story-teller! I have my masters in opera and have been a private music instructor for 7 years. My favorite way to share music is through story-telling and live music programming. I sing and play the ukulele and piano. I love collaborating to bring free and affordable arts programming to communities across the U.S. I currently offer two types of programming designed for public spaces.
